SUFFRAGE WORK IN WEST.

Call to Women to Co-operate in Fight for the Vote.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 9.—A warning to women to put aside personal differences and co-operate to the fullest extent in the fight for national enfranchisement was sounded by speakers today before the Mississippi Valley Suffrage conference. Organization in cities, towns and rural districts of women's clubs and a close study of public affairs are factors which must not be ignored, Suffrage leaders told the 500 delegates. The most effective methods of conducting a campaign were discussed by Kate Gordon of Louisiana, and problems encountered in organizing rural districts were outlined by Stabel Dunlap Curry of Indiana.

PHYLLIS LOSES JOB IN ZIEGFELD CHORUS AND IS BEHIND BARS

But Don't Waste Sympathy on Her, for She's a Bear and Belongs There.

Phyllis, the little brunette—you may remember her—second from the left—is out of the Ziegfeld "Follies." She was in every performance of the 1915 show, but there's no part for her in the 1916 production, and a lot of people are going to miss her.

There have been unhappy times lately for Phyllis. She is a ward of Flo Ziegfeld, and more than once has proved much of a care to him. Several times she has been taken to court and fined for appearing in the streets incompletely and improperly clad, because she and the police hold different views as to what constituted modesty.

Recently, Mr. Ziegfeld, exasperated over her, sent Phyllis to Hastings to be under the care of Miss Billie Burke, his wife, who has always been much interested in the wayward little creature. But this sort of guardianship was not at all to Phyllis's liking, and she carried on so about it that Mr. Ziegfeld had to bring her back to town today and send her to Bill Snyder at the Central Park Zoo. Phyllis is a one-year-old brown bear, whose fines for appearing in the street without a muzzle, and whose objection to confinement have become too great a burden for Flo Ziegfeld to endure.

Bill Snyder put her in a cage with a sister bear and said she'd be as happy as a cricket in a day or two.

Former Broker Arrested as Thief.
 William Shea, elevator man in the Cathedral Apartments at No. 100 Cathedral Parkway, refused early today to acknowledge the authority of Detectives Heilly and Finn to go up to the apartment of Russell Guyspe, once a wealthy real estate broker of Chicago, though they had a warrant from Magistrate Murphy for his arrest. The detectives arrested Shea and took him to the apartment with them. Guyspe was arrested in bed and was taken to Police Headquarters to face a charge of robbing a telephone coin box at Broadway and Forty-seventh Street Feb. 26 last. There are five indictments pending against him in New Jersey making similar charges.

WAR CAUSES INCREASE IN THE IRISH EXPORTS

Official Report Shows Steady Growth of Trade During the Last Decade.

DUBLIN, Ireland, May 9 (Associated Press).—Irish exports have increased considerably on account of the war. The official returns just completed for the year 1914 show a total of 77,300,000 pounds, an increase of three and half million pounds over 1913. The increase is due almost entirely to the shipbuilding at Belfast.

It is a curious feature of the report that although 54 per cent. of the Irish exports are represented by farm produce and foodstuffs, 37 per cent. of Ireland's 73,000,000 pounds of import should be food, and the Department of Agriculture comments pointedly on the fact that a good-producing country should be annually importing great quantities of farm produce, much of which is admirably suited for raising at home.

On the whole the report is regarded as a gratifying record of continued progress in Ireland. In addition to the increase in exports the decade has also witnessed an increase of imports by 35 per cent. in value and 12 per cent. in bulk. The total imports and exports of Ireland, in fact, now represent a higher per capita value than the average for the United Kingdom, the United States, France or Germany.

CALL FOR $15,000,000 TO USE IN FIGHT FOR CONTROL OF SEA TRADE

Financial Giants of Wall Street Mobilize All Resources for Struggle.

Mobilization of resources and a call for reserves marked to-day's events in Wall Street's warfare between two of its financial giants, the National City Bank backing the American International Corporation and the Guaranty Trust Company backing

Gaston, Williams & Wigmore in the rivalry for control of ships and foreign trade. Frank A. Vanderlip, President of the National City and also Chairman of the Board of Directors of the American International Corporation, sent out a call to-day on stockholders of the latter concern for payment of an installment of $30 on each share of subscribed capital. When the company was launched, subscribers paid in only $20 per share of $100 par value. Now they are to pay $30 more, making 50 per cent. Full authorized capital is $50,000,000, and to-day's call will bring in $15,000,000 of cash to continue the warfare.

The American International Corporation got first start in the competition and bought up practical control of the Mercantile Marine Company, giving it the trans-Atlantic ships. The battle now on is for control of coast-wise, West Indies and South American ships. The contest to-day centered around the United Fruit Company, which owns the White Fleet of vessels running to the tropics. At the opening of the stock market there were evidences of heavy buying of Fruit shares. For a week prices have steadily advanced. On May 1, the quotation was 146. Today's touched 164 1/2 but on account of disturbing news from Mexico and sinking of the Cymric there was considerable fluctuation in prices.

Ribbon Workers Strike.
 Rejecting a compromise offer of an increase of wages ranging from 5 to 10 per cent, 180 ribbon weavers employed by Johnson, Cowdin & Co., Paterson, went on strike to-day. They demand increases of from 10 to 25 per cent. Eleven women weavers accepted the compromise. The other 400 employees of the factory may be thrown out of work.

Why does Instrumental Music sound so much better on Columbia Records?

WE have spoken of the great durability of Columbia Records. This is a decided advantage but, of course, secondary to their tone-producing qualities.

The Columbia Record is patented in its construction, and exclusive in the special material of which it is composed. The surface composition of these records not only resists needle-wear better than any other, but also takes a better tone-wave impression.

When it is understood that the musical quality is entirely dependent upon this impression—upon the faithfulness with which it reproduces the actual contour of the recorded tone-waves made by voices or instruments, the musical superiority of Columbia Records is explained.

You have only to hear a few Columbia band and orchestra records, a piano solo by Josef Hofmann and the playing of a violin by Eugen Ysaye, to be convinced of this tonal superiority.

That is why it is but natural for Aeolian Hall to recommend Columbia Records very heartily.

Next subject in this paper: "Why should I prefer my Operatic Music on Columbia Records?"
